Scott joined the ROPAN team in late 2015, coming from an ASIC background previously. He started as an Associate before completing his qualifications and being appointed as a Financial Adviser in 2018, where he began creating and implementing strategic financial plans for new and existing clients.

In 2019, Scott became a shareholder of ROPAN and in 2025 was appointed as a Director, where he continues to provide advice to new and existing clients while also having a role in the continuing development of the Associates (and future Financial Advisers) of ROPAN.

Outside of business, Scott is a keen fisherman and golfer. His weekends often involve getting out and about on a golfing or fishing adventure.
